

Jubilee Insurance Center
Plot 14, Parliament Avenue
P.O. Box 1682
Kampala
Uganda

Tel: +256 414 344 219 / +256 414 259 723

Fax: +256 414 344 810

Website: www.igg.go.ug; pr@igg.go.ug

E-Mail

Beti Olive Namisango Kamyaturomwe, also known as Betty Kamyaturomwe and Beti Kamyaturomwe, is a businesswoman and politician in Uganda, the third-largest economy in the East African Community. Before that, from 6 June 2016 until 14 December 2019, she served as the Minister for Kampala Capital City Authority in Uganda's cabinet.

Beti Olive Namisango Kamyaturomwe is the founder and former president of the Uganda Federal Alliance (UFA), one of the registered political parties in Uganda. She was a candidate in the 2011 Ugandan presidential elections, coming in fifth with 52,782 votes. She previously served as the Member of Parliament representing Lubaga North Constituency on the Forum for Democratic Change (FDC) ticket from 2006 until 2010.

Kamyaturomwe joined the National Resistance Movement party and in 2020 she participated in the flag bearer elections for Lubaga North constituency as a candidate. She won Brian Tindyebwa and Dr. Isaac Lwanga to become the official NRM flag bearer in the 2021 parliamentary elections.

In the 2021 general elections, Kamyaturomwe lost the Lubaga North parliamentary election to Ababaker Kawayi of the National Unity Platform (NUP) a party under the leadership of Robert Kyagulanyi Senteboza.

She attended McKay Memorial School in Kampala and Saint Hellen's Primary School in Western Uganda for her elementary school. She then attended Wanyange Girls' School for her O-Level education and Kings College Budo for her A-Level education. Kamyaturomwe studied at Makerere University, the oldest and largest public university in the country, graduating with a Bachelor of Commerce degree in marketing.

Between 2001 and 2004, while still at UWEC, Kamya became an official in the political pressure group Reform, Agenda, the precursor of the FDC political party. From 2005 until 2010, she served as the special envoy of the then FDC president Kizza Besigye. She also served as the elected member of parliament for Lubaga North Constituency on the FDC ticket. In January 2010, she quit FDC and formed the UFA, becoming its first president.

On 6 June 2016, Kamya was named as Minister for Kampala Capital City Authority in the new Cabinet announced that day. In a cabinet reshuffle on 14 December 2019, she was named the Minister of Lands, Housing and Urban Development.